

Week Eight

1 Peter 4

1. Peter describes a _____ condition: being done with sin, that has been determined by a _____ event: Christ's crucifixion. (1 Peter 4:1)

*He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness;
"by his wounds you have been healed."*

1 Peter 2:24

2. When we opt out of sinful living it will draw some people _____ us out of curiosity, and it will repel other people _____ us in hostility. (1 Peter 4:4)

"If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you."

John 15:18

3. We are to live our lives in light of Christ's impending _____. (1 Peter 4:7)

"Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks."

Luke 12:35-36

4. Love does not broadcast the _____ of the beloved. (1 Peter 4:8)

For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.

Hebrews 8:12

5. In suffering, the Christ follower has the unique opportunity to rejoice because they understand two things:

A) Those who share in Christ's suffering will one day share in his _____. (1 Peter 4:13)

B) Suffering does not destroy the righteous, but _____ them. (1 Peter 4:17)

6. As we trust in the character of God and the purposes of God in the midst of suffering and trials, we remain witness of _____ as we make our way _____.

Therefore, let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.

1 Peter 4:19
